'Vegetarian' is more than a living style. It can also be a window through which great things can be seen from the small. It enables one to become more aware of one's body, mind, and the environment.

All dishes are made 100% with vegetables, and mock meats from soya bean products such as T.V.P., fresh bean curd, and wheat gluten.

Based on Buddha's doctrine, five pungent plants which create anger and sexual desire are prohibited: (Garlic, onion, chives, leeks, and shallots).
